

- Hotels
- Public Transports
- Schools
- Daycare
- Home

Quick Facts About Bed Bugs*

3,300 years

They have been associated with humans thus far

 200-500 eggs

An adult female bed bug lays an average of 5 eggs per day

30 metres

That's how far they travel

 5mm long

Size of an apple seed, yet mighty

51 days

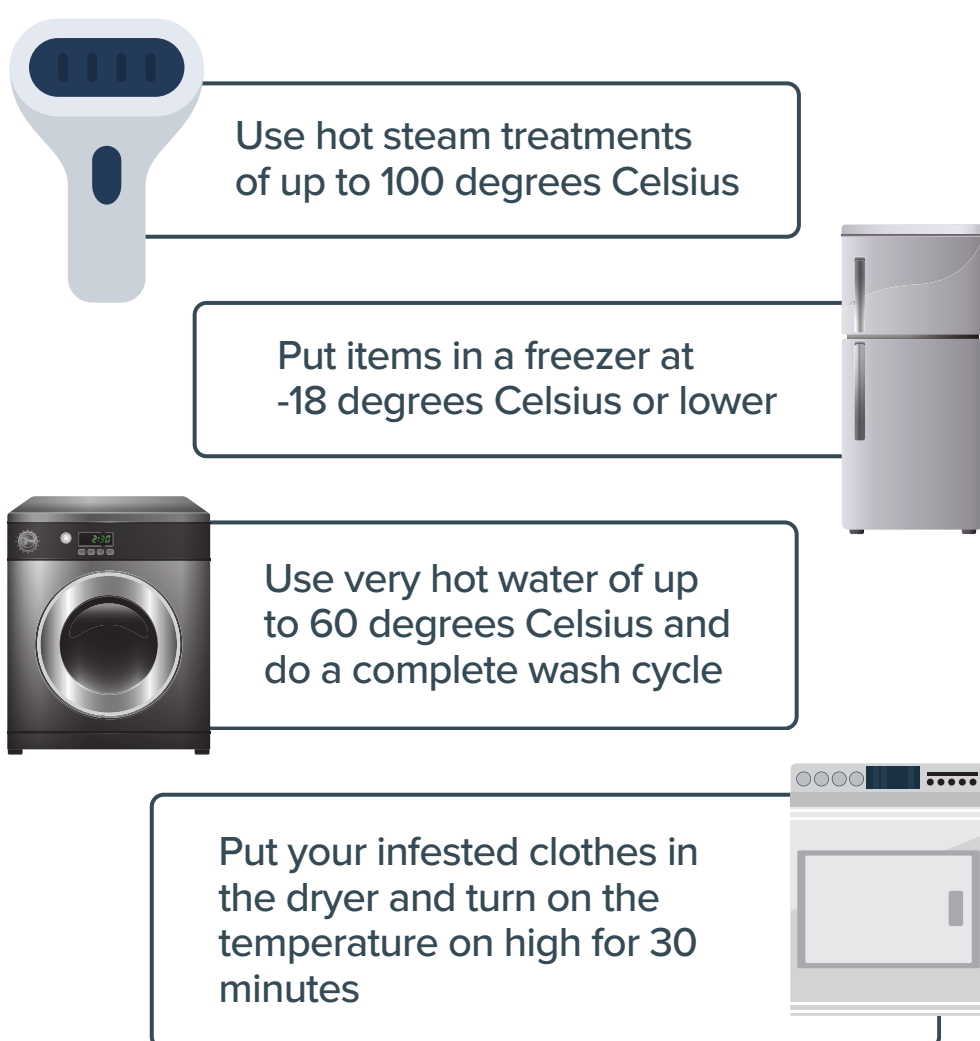

Survive without blood meal for an average of 51 days

 10 minutes

Each blood meal is required about 3-10 minutes

Tips to Prevent and Eliminate Bed Bugs

What Should You Do If You Get Bed Bugs At Home?

Prevent and Eliminate

Home Maintenance

Seal cracks and crevices to prevent hiding gaps

Regular Cleaning

Vacuum carpet or fabric drapes and upholstered furniture regularly

Engage Professionals

Perform thorough site inspection and Bed Bugs Treatment

Find out more about Bed Bugs Hot Steam Treatment!

*Source: America National Pest Management Association (NPMA)